

WARNING: THIS BABY BITES!

The last thing you want on your minicycle is a tyre that would be better off fitted to a pram.

What you want is something with real bite. A tyre that grabs onto the track surface then propels you where you want to go. A tyre with all the latest dirt bike tyre technology built in, scaled to fit the needs of today's minicycles.

And the needs of the kids who ride them.

Bridgestone is one of the largest manufacturers of tyres in the world today. And when we designed our minicycle tyres we researched the subject thoroughly to come up with what we think is the best mini tyre collection you can buy. A collection we are proud of.

You might say we are the proud parents.
