Every time they race You win

We don't make very many racing tyres.

And they cost us a lot of money.

Your kind of tyres we make and sell thousands of.

And they get us a living.

Tyres like the K70, Ribbed, and the fabulous K81, now re-named the TT100 after lapping the TT course at over 100 mph on a production machine.

So why do we bother with racing tyres?

For the very good reason that we learn from them how to make your tyres better.

And the better we make tyres for you, the better we make things for ourselves.

It's as simple as that.

THE ROUGH STUFF REIGNS SUPREME

by Peter Howdle of Motor Cycle News

STAN HAILWOOD, millionaire father of speed tycoon Mike the Bike, believed that moto-cross would eclipse road racing as the world's leading motor cycle sport.

His prediction is coming true. A golden era of high speed has slipped into history and the rough stuff reigns supreme.

Today, you will see highly paid works scramblers battling against stars who may never reach such dizzy heights. But all are magnificent athletes who play one of the most spectacular and exacting games under the sun.

Among the galaxy of talent for this 500 c.c. British Grand Prix—the fifth at Farleigh Castle—is a sportsman who will be the world champion of 1971.

Half a dozen could win the title but none are British. For although scrambling, like football, started here, we have been unable to produce a world champion since the dedication of Jeff Smith won the crown for B.S.A. in the mid-60s.

For many of you, today's clash of giants will be a unique opportunity of admiring the men and machines whose exploits have thrilled crowds all over Europe.

Unlike last year, when Bengt Aberg had already clinched the title, before he came and conquered, the situation remains fluid. Teething troubles with a quicker Husqvarna spoiled his efforts earlier in the season but he is back in the hunt in a big way.

Adolf Weil, who leads the championship at 32 years of age, has scored in six of the seven rounds to date. He races a Maico similar to Ake Jonsson's, winner of the Hants Grand International at his last appearance in the U.K., and currently third in the championship.

Paul Friedrichs, the ex-world champion, whose glorious comeback was interrupted by injury, is no stranger to our shores. He clinched the second of his three titles when he rode a CZ to victory here in '67.

Roger De Coster is Suzuki's first contender for the 500 c.c. crown. A great stylist, he has behind him the vast resources of a factory which already dominates the 250 c.c. world contest.

Thirteen nations are taking part but, with 13 Britons, the home side is strongest numerically. John Banks is our main hope and Bryan Wade is our dark horse, but don't forget last year's surprise from Bob Taylor when he finished second overall.

You are about to see one of the finest events this country has staged this year. Motor Cycle News is proud to sponsor it. The West Wilts Club have worked hard for your pleasure. And you can read all about it in M.C.N. next Wednesday.
